

CHARLESTON

SCHOOL OF LAW

#1

CITY IN AMERICA
Travel + Leisure
(2013-2020)

2nd

HIGHEST RATED
PROFESSORS FOR ACCESSIBILITY
The Princeton Review
(2021)

Total
Student
Body

#8

GREATEST RESOURCES
FOR WOMEN
The Princeton Review
(2021)

Full-Time
Professors

What They Are Saying

"Coming into law school, I was expecting a cut-throat environment and was very intimidated by the whole process. While law school has had its challenges, I have been pleasantly surprised by the close-knit and family-like environment the law school fosters. The people I have met here make law school that much more worth it."

- Brittany Fulcher, 2L

Average
1L
Section
Size

Public Service

238,500+ hours of pro bono service completed by our students since the school's inception

12,260 pro bono hours completed by the Class of 2020

50 number of pro bono hours students must complete prior to graduation

Tuition (2021-2022)

$42,340 Full-time

$34,020 Part-time

Scholarships

Merit-based

Need-based

Study Abroad

Granada,
Spain

The Hague,
Netherlands

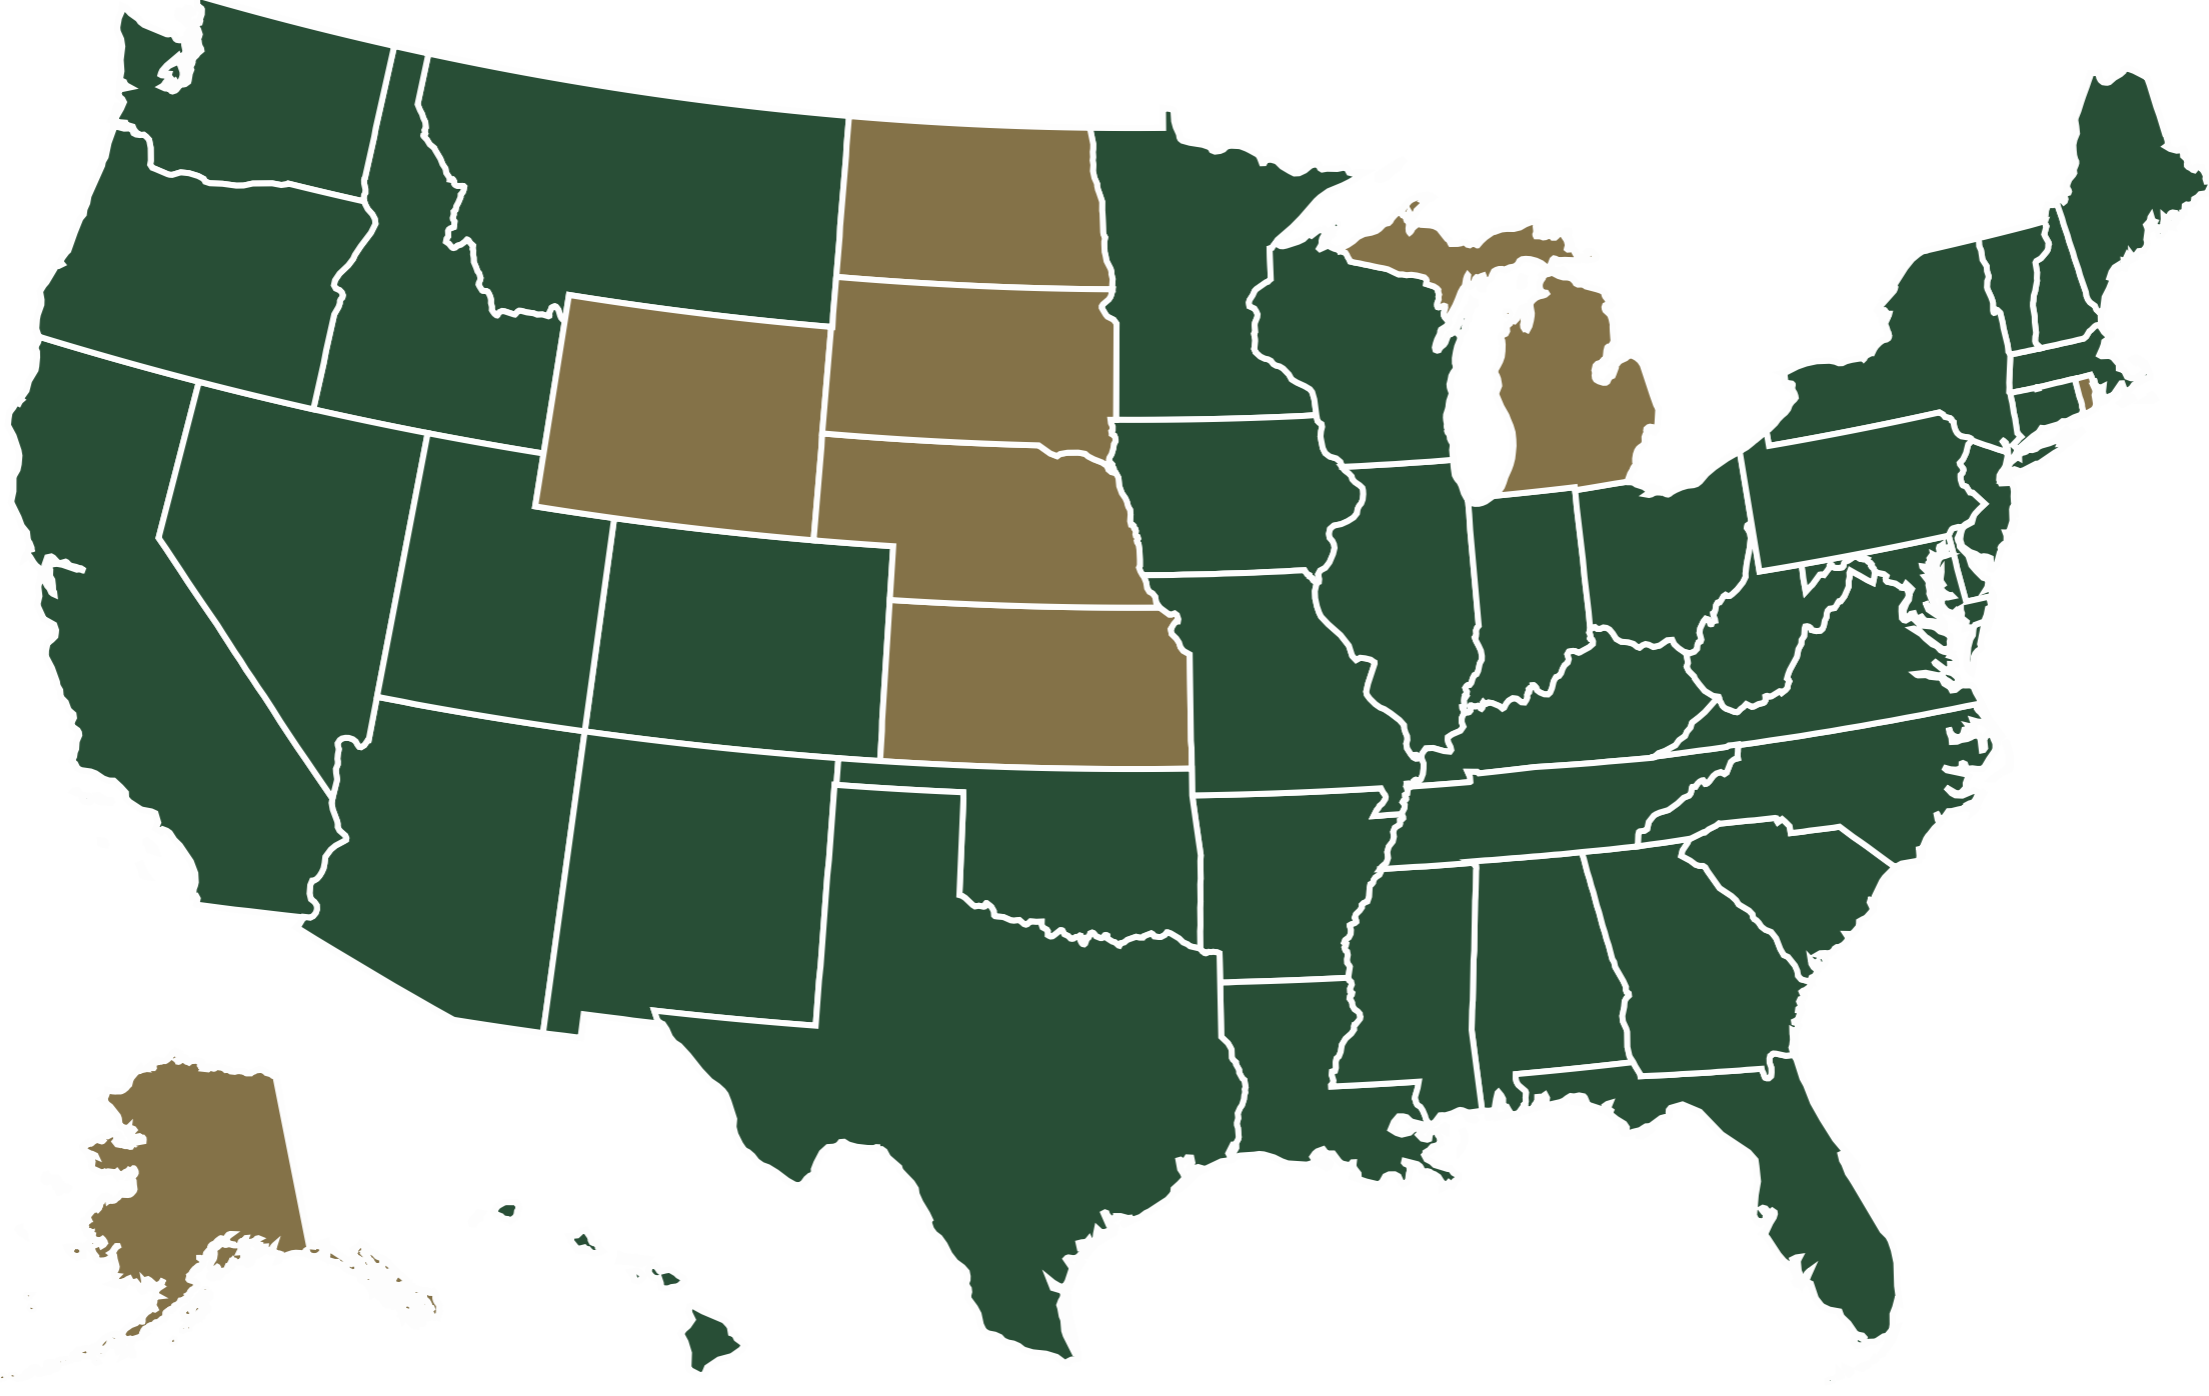

Cape Town,
South Africa

London,
England

44

States or U.S. territories in which alumni are licensed to practice

2011

Year the Charleston School of Law received full ABA accreditation

150+

Externship sites for students to gain hands-on experience

40+

Student organizations ranging from legal fraternities to competitive teams to academic interest areas

3

Specialization Designations - Criminal Practice, Public Policy & Service, and Civil Litigation & Dispute Resolution

3

Law reviews - Charleston Law Review, MALABU, and Resolved: Journal of Alternative Dispute Resolution

CharlestonLaw.edu

